

Las Vegas Daily Gazette

Friday, November 7, 1879.

Harris and Gilmore, the alleged boot thieves, "skipped out" for Vegas when they were released, and made no effort to prove and claim their property held by the officers. A guilty conscience needs no accuser, and they are probably glad to get out of the scrape so well as they did.—Trinidad News.

Governor Robinson to Ewing: My dear General: How do you feel? General Ewing to Robinson: My dear Governor: Wait until Tuesday and you will know.

As Safe as a United States Bond.

We publish elsewhere the thirty-fourth annual statement of the New-York Life Insurance Company, and it speaks more eloquently than words for the fidelity and ability with which the affairs of that Company are managed. With a surplus of $6,500,000, the managers of the New York Life may confidently appeal to the public for patronage. There is one feature in the report which must command the attention of all interested in life insurance, and that is the excess of market value of the securities amounts to more than six hundred thousand dollars. During the past year the New York Life has issued 5,082 policies, insuring $15,949,986. The cash assets amount to the enormous sum of $37,887,295, and this shows that a policy in the New-York Life is as safe as a United States bond.

Mr. A. B. Sager represents this great company at Las Vegas, and no one should neglect to insure with him and secure a policy which without question is as safe as a United States bond.

William Shaw, member of the house of commons of Cork, and a home rule leader, has sent a letter to all the Irish members of parliament requesting them to sign a memorial to Lord Beaconsfield regarding the prevailing distress in Ireland.

Notwithstanding the fact that thousands of our people are at present worrying themselves almost to death over this vexed question, even to the extent of neglecting their business, their homes and their duty to their families, there are still thousands upon thousands of smart, hard working, intelligent men pouring into the great Arkansas Valley, the Garden of the West, where the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad divides their lands in the world at almost
